William Weissensee and daughter, Miss Helen Weissensee, of Highland Township, returned today from Columbus, Ind., where they were called by the death of Mr. Weissensee's son, Mr. Christiana Harris, 64. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at North Church, five miles south of Columbus and interment was in North Cemetery.

Mrs. Harris died suddenly of her trouble at 9:30 o'clock Thursday night at her home. She was born Susan Marion, April 10, 1863, and was daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weissensee. The marriage to Gillis Harris took place 29 years ago.

Surviving with the husband are six children, Mrs. Milla Ormsby, of Union, Ind., and Mrs. Sanford Aumie, Huntington Ind.; one brother, Will Weissensee, this county, and one brother, Fred Weissensee, residing in the Harris home.

TAKEN HOME

Edgar Fisher, who is recovering from injuries sustained in a recent fall, was removed to his home, 8, High street, yesterday in the Hess, Markert & Co. invalid car.

Violets and dandelions make pretty bouquet and it is the humble dandelion that confers the touch of spring.

America's part in the China revolution and why she is playing that part, was explained by Harrison Yang, Chinese government student from Oberlin College, in an address, before the Rotary Club at the noon luncheon meeting at Hotel Harding yesterday.

America, the speaker said, has been the only real friend among all the nations that China has ever had. That that friendship he said continued up until last year when the United States began to be used as a tool by other nations led a charge against the Chinese because they had seen fit to object to the tax levied on them by other nations which had become established in China.

Still Friendly
Up until this time, the speaker said America had been regarded as a friend of China and even now is regarded as such by the thinking Chinese. Tariffs and trades which made it impossible for Chinese merchants to compete with foreign merchants doing business in China was given as the answer, as one of the causes leading up to the revolution. China was not allowed to levy a duty of more than five per cent against foreign merchants while they themselves were assessed heavy duties by the foreign countries, he said.

China, Mr. Yang pointed out, has always been a peaceful nation and much preferred to settle all questions by giving in rather than by fighting, which three vital questions you have asked about used car allowances

1 "What is my present car worth?"

Answer: Your used car has only one fundamental basis of value: that is what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.

2 “Why should dealers in different makes of cars offer me allowances that differ materially?”

Answer: Your used car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.

3 "Is it true that the largest allowance offered means the best deal for me?"

Answer: The largest allowance is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; sometimes it is not. An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.

FIRST judge the merits of the new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in allowance offered on your used car. Remember that after all you are making a purchase, not a sale.

NEW SCHEDULE FOR BUSES GOES INTO EFFECT

Car Now Leave Marion for Kenton and Lima Every Two Hours

The new schedule of the Marion Lima Transit Co., operating buses between Marion, Kenton and Lima, went into effect today.

Buses now leave Marion daily for Kenton and Lima every two hours from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. A bus leaves Kenton for Lima at 7 o'clock each morning and every two hours thereafter until 7 o'clock at night. All buses leaving Marion on that line arrive in Kenton an hour later and in Lima two hours later.

On the return trip buses depart from Lima at 7 o'clock each morning and every two hours thereafter until 7 o'clock at night. The final bus, leaving at 7 o'clock, goes only to Kenton. The company formerly operated a bus each hour, starting at 7 o'clock each morning.

The permit for the change of schedule was received several weeks ago from the Ohio Public Utilities Commission. Buses will be run daily under the new time table.

Railway Convention

Better business methods for electric railways, city, interurban and freight, will be discussed at the annual convention of the Central Electric Railway Association, to be held in Detroit, June 29 to July 31.

The tentative program also includes a session on track construction and maintenance, one on electrical overhead construction, and one on financing.

Electric railway leaders of Ohio, Indiana and Michigan will attend.

Better Lake Trade

The general conditions within the Great Lakes district all point to slightly better business than obtained last year during the months of May, June, July and August, according to the Great Lakes shippers advisory board, which met in Cleveland a few days ago, in its final report.

Passing from the first into the second half of the year, always a critical time for business, will occur without any shock, it is reported by all of the 33 commodity committees.

More than 600 delegates attended the convention at Cleveland.

SECOND ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN DIVORCE FAILS

Petition of William H. Oborn, Prominent Farmer, Dismissed by Judge

A second attempt of William H. Oborn, prominent Marion County farmer, to obtain a divorce after 42 years of married life, ended in failure in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday afternoon when his petition was dismissed by Judge Scofield.

Oborn's first suit came to the same conclusion when it was heard about a year ago by former Common Pleas Judge Charles L. Justice.

Yesterday's hearing was brief, Oborn being the only witness appearing on the stand. Dismissal of the suit came as soon as Judge Scofield ascertained that Oborn had no testimony to offer other than that which was introduced when he was denied a divorce a year ago.

In taking this action the court granted the plea of Mrs. Oborn, who had filed an answer to her husband's petition in which she denied his charges of gross neglect and desertion and filed a counter charge alleging that he had forced her to leave home. She asserted that she found it necessary to seek shelter with her son, who resides in Los Angeles, Cal. She is now living with this son, according to court records.

The couple were married on Dec. 31, 1885, and have two children, both now past legal age. Mr. and Mrs. Oborn resided for years in the southern part of the county, where they are well known.

Q. Why does growing its own rubber enable the United States Rubber Company to give you more for your tire money?

A. Because—better rubber builds better tires.

Many years ago the makers of United States Tires started their search for finer, cleaner rubber in larger quantities.

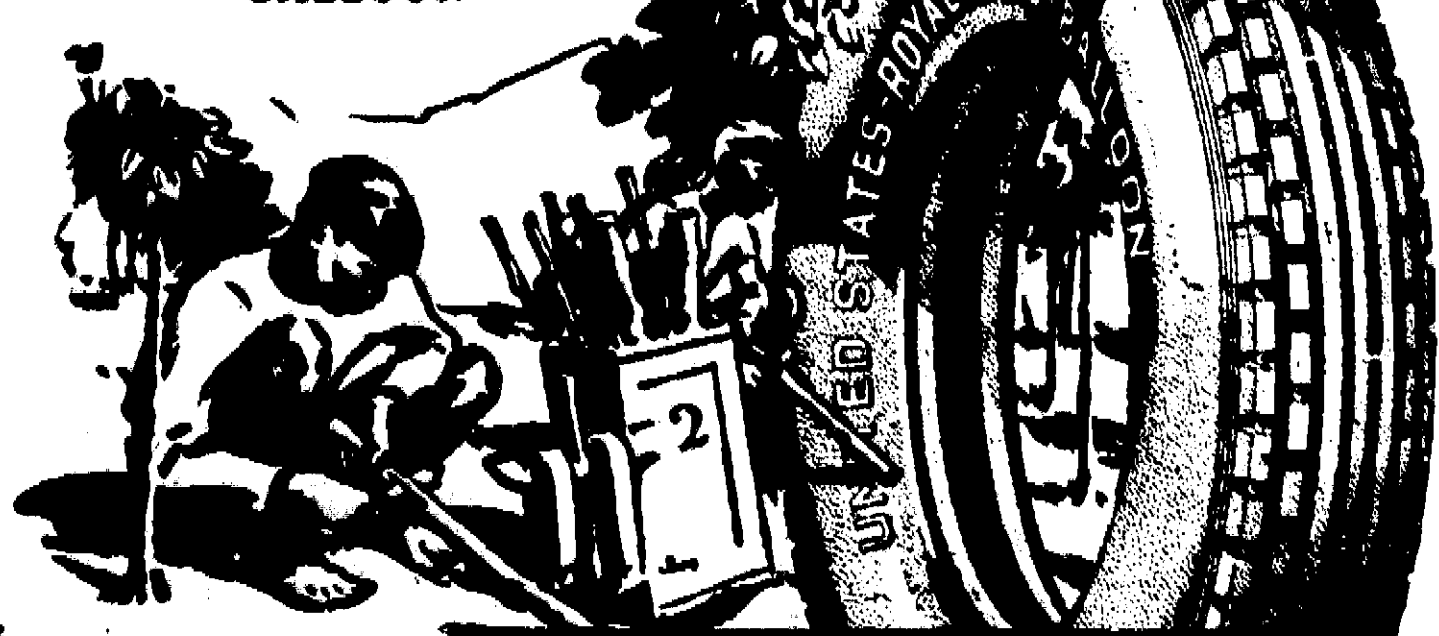

The only way to get it was to grow the rubber themselves.

Today the United States Rubber Company's Plantations contain 10,000,000 pedigreed rubber trees, yielding large quantities of the finest kind of rubber latex.

They provide an ever-increasing source of supply for the finest rubber that can be produced.

To Be Found Among en Families on Isle of Attu

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—Out in the Bering Sea, 1,000 miles beyond the last outpost, where the only once a year, lives a San Francisco man who is king in his own right.

There is no crime, no law, no word of the "Golden Rule" is their motto.

There are seven families, 35 men, and one thousand blue-eyed, white-skinned islanders.

Attu is the seat of his power, a stone's throw from the mainland.

Who He Is
He is a bachelor and the man in the Aleutian Islands is Frederick Schroder.

A pioneer San Francisco man, he has been on the island since 1906, when he goes to Unalaska for a year.

Important Discovery
The natives uncovered an ancient construction, years it has lain buried on the island.

The great rim at the bottom of the island is a high and three feet in diameter.

With it all, the great bell of sweetness of tones.

There is no sex in the island when it comes to the women do their share.

young island kingdom. She must be young and beautiful, too, a fairy princess, to help rule this Isle of Dreams. Schroder promises to give a hand in the upkeep of the school, and guarantee obedient scholars.

When his Imperial Majesty, Frederick I returns to his "palace" on the Isle of Attu, he leaves San Francisco on board the royal "yacht," the sturdy schooner Emma which is manned by native Aleutians. First he goes to Unalaska, the government's last outpost, to transact official business, then to his domain and subjects.

Club members and others who aspire to convert the city lot at the intersection of Patton and Patterson into a playground for children of that section of the city, will now have a clear field in which to exercise their aspirations.

The lot appears to be a drug on the market for any other purpose. Today at noon was set by the service director as the time for opening the bids for the sale of the lot as authorized by council, but when 12 o'clock arrived there were no bids to open and the lot still remains the property of the city.

Much discussion to the sale of the lot, which had been used as a dumping ground by the city until filled, was registered by the various clubs when it became known that council had authorized the service director to advertise for bids for its sale.

A playground was needed for the children of that section of the city, it was said, and the lot would provide an ideal solution to the problem. Committees were appointed by various clubs to confer with council relative to stopping the sale of the lot. As there were no bidders for the lot today it is quite likely that those in favor of the playground will find no objection on the part of council.

The lot is termed as a nuisance by the service department, it has become filled to a point where it is now higher than the grade and not being enclosed by a fence, the department is faced with the problem of preventing continued dumping by residents of that part of the city.

Some people are a little amusing but they could not entertain a doubt. Most of the trouble is produced by those who never produce anything else.

It sounds paradoxical, but no woman can hold her own in a battle of tongues.

Need 6,000 Factories
It requires about 6,000 factories, manned by 140,000 employees, 300,000 modistes and dress makers, and 80,000 milliners, to say nothing of thousands of shoemakers to produce the feminine wardrobe every year.

A great portion of the glorification takes place in the large cities. Where an evening entertainment runs into large figures and calls for an expensive outlay of clothing.

Small town and rural flappers may be properly glorified for the price of a few soft drinks and a ride in the roller-coaster, hence eliminating them from responsibility for the gigantic national total.

Glorification costs have gone up tremendously since the war, owing particularly to the more expensive tastes of the younger generation.

Idle Curiosity keeps a lot of people busy. Many a pensile girl turns out to be expensive.

Boys will be boys but must old women be girls? Lots of people are poor subjects for a mind-reader.

How no longer hide behind women's skirts. Mothers do weep.

It requires about 6,000 factories, manned by 140,000 employees, 300,000 modistes and dress makers, and 80,000 milliners, to say nothing of thousands of shoemakers to produce the feminine wardrobe every year.

A great portion of the glorification takes place in the large cities. Where an evening entertainment runs into large figures and calls for an expensive outlay of clothing.

Small town and rural flappers may be properly glorified for the price of a few soft drinks and a ride in the roller-coaster, hence eliminating them from responsibility for the gigantic national total.

Glorification costs have gone up tremendously since the war, owing particularly to the more expensive tastes of the younger generation.

Idle Curiosity keeps a lot of people busy. Many a pensile girl turns out to be expensive.

Boys will be boys but must old women be girls? Lots of people are poor subjects for a mind-reader.

How no longer hide behind women's skirts. Mothers do weep.

There is one hope which will give up—that the world is going to show better, coming, coming.

How no longer hide behind women's skirts. Mothers do weep.

U. S. HAS SPENT 3 BILLIONS FOR TRADE VESSELS

Ten-Year Undertaking in Effort
To Build Foreign Trade
Is Costly

Washington, April.—In the 10 years that it has been undertaking to establish an American Merchant Marine, the United States government has expended more than $3,500,000,000 of public funds in that endeavor.

For this outlay the government today has:

One high-speed trans-Atlantic passenger line of six ships, the United States Lines, operating directly under Shipping Board management between New York and the principal ports of Western Europe.

One passenger-cargo line, between New York and Europe.

Twenty-two cargo lines, covering the principal trade routes in which the United States has built up a foreign trade.

These 24 lines have 345 ships in service. All except the United States Lines are operated under operator manager agreements between the Emergency Fleet Corporation and American shipping firms with the government guaranteeing any operating losses.

An additional 500 ships under Shipping Board control are tied up at docks and in ship yards where they have been practically since the world war.

Many Ships Scrapped
Since 1920 the Shipping Board has put 22 passenger-cargo ships, the "President" type and 1085 cargo vessels into the hands of private owners, receiving $80,000,000 for them. It is estimated that about half of these have been scrapped for such salvage as they would yield.

On January 1, 1937, according to Shipping Board records, there were 1,450 vessels of 1,000 gross tons or more in actual operation flying the American flag. Of these 737 were in the foreign trade and 713 in the coastwise and intercoastal domestic trade.

Of the approximately 1,100 private operated ships under American registry, 323 are tankers owned by the Standard and other big oil companies, 100 being engaged in foreign trade and 223 in the domestic coastwise service.

Passenger vessels number 152 of which 23 are in foreign service, 31 in the West Indies and Caribbean and 92 in the coastwise service.

Cargo vessels, numbering 616, include 144 in the foreign trade, 75 in the West Indies and Caribbean and 397 in the coastwise service.

Private Interests
Many of these privately owned vessels were in operation before government launched its merchant marine development program in 1917. Others have been built by private interests since that time.

Total original appropriations and allotments by Congress to the United States Shipping Board up to and including the fiscal year ending June 30, 1937, aggregate $3,520,165,420. Unexpended balances from these appropriations returned to the United States Treasury amount to $23,959,420. Thus the net outlay at the end of the present fiscal year is figured at $3,547,606,000.

Administrative expenses of the Shipping Board from 1917 to 1937 inclusive have consumed $5,280,040. The Emergency Fleet Corporation has spent the rest.

What the world needs today is fewer cranks and more self-starters.

A blow of fate brings a man to his senses, if it doesn't cripple his soul for life.

Story of how a rich man became poor is as important as know as the story of how a poor man became rich.

JOHN COOLIDGE BETTER RIDER THAN PRINCE

But President's Son Doesn't Try Hazardous Steeplechase Jumps

Washington, May 17.—Horseback riding recently has an uncontrollable appeal to youth of the blood. Edward Albert, much a glee-over Prince of Wales, is known to the four corners of the earth for his exploits in horsemanship, and now America's "crown prince," John Coolidge, has turned to the sport for his principal recreation.

John holds the mount much better than the son of the House of Windsor, but it must be said in fairness to the Prince that young Coolidge does not undertake the hazardous steeple-chasing which makes the tumblers of the British bear a reputation almost weekly front-page copy.

The son of the President, while in Washington, is a familiar sight to those who patronize the public golf links around which the Potomac Park bridge path runs. Almost every morning he can be seen through the park accompanied by Lieutenant Joe Mathison, superintendent of the White House stables, or Jim Haley or Russell Wood, secret service operatives.

John's other favorite forms of recreation are tennis and swimming although since his brother Calvin died he has not engaged in them so much. In college, young Coolidge has not gone out for athletics. He had brief hopes of making the college boxing team but a decisive three round defeat and much accompanying publicity cooled that ardor.

NEW YORK MAN PRAISES OHIO FOR GOOD ROADS

Rochester Pastor Compliments
State Highway Department on Its System

Residents of Ohio who are inclined at times to find fault with road conditions in their state have no sound reasons for their complaints according to a statement in a letter received by the state highway department from Dr. Paul Stratton, pastor of the Westminster Church at Rochester, N. Y.

A copy of the letter has been sent to Grover C. Snyder, division engineer of the highway department with headquarters in this city.

Reverend Stratton, who is reported to be one of the best known ministers in New York State, was moved to write an expression of commendation to the state highway department following a motor trip through Ohio. His letter follows in part:

"I have recently returned from an automobile trip that took me through the state of Ohio and I am acting upon the impulse that I feel to extend my sincere congratulations to you and to your department upon the most excellent system of highways that I found in Ohio.

"My trip took me twice across the state, from north to south and from east to west, with my return in opposite directions, and in all of the journey I was both very much impressed with your road system and very much pleased. In a journey of about 1,000 miles in your state I was obliged to travel on five miles of road that was not in excellent condition and that did not show the evidence of wise and faithful care. Your roads were uniformly smooth, clean and well posted, and our entire party were loud in their praise of them.

"I felt that I should pass along to you this expression of appreciation since undoubtedly as a public official you receive your full share of adverse criticism, and I felt that the condition of the highways in the state of Ohio as I found them in my travels is a tribute to the efficiency of the state commissioner and to the faithful workers in his department and that they should know that it was both noticed and appreciated by a tourist from an other state."

FAMOUS FRENCH TAXI ON TOUR STOPS IN MARION

Battered Old Renault Used in World War Arrives Behind
Schedule

Lieut. H. A. Dudo, French World War hero who is piloting a battered old Renault taxicab, a relic of the battlefield, in a transcontinental tour from Hollywood to New York City, arrived in Marion at noon yesterday, two hours behind schedule.

As a consequence of this delay in the time of his arrival, Lieut. Dudo missed being received by an official escort, consisting of members of the American Legion and the Harding Club, which had been formed to greet him as he entered the city.

The escort was stationed on Mt. Vernon-av., near the east corporation line, at 10:30 o'clock, the time set for the French war veteran's appearance. Due to a misunderstanding regarding the route and also to unfavorable weather conditions which held up progress of the Renault taxicab, the lieutenant did not reach here until about 12:30 o'clock, and came in over the back road instead of Mt. Vernon-av.

In addition to the military escort, a large delegation of citizens was on hand at the Mt. Vernon-av. location waiting to join in the reception. The taxicab which saw service in France during the early years of the war, was towed here from Columbus by one of the local taxi cabs of that city. It was taken to Lima this morning.

The battered conveyance was used in Hollywood in screening "The Seventh Heaven," a Fox Film Corporation feature picture, which is to be released soon. It will be shown in Marion in the near future.

HUMAN FLAG IS PLANNED FOR MEMORIAL DAY

Red Cross Arranging Novel
Feature with 400 School
Children Participating

Marion County Chapter of the Red Cross is planning a feature for the Memorial Day parade here on May 30 which is expected to be one of the most notable spectacles of the kind ever witnessed in this city.

An effort is now being made by Miss Mina Doughty, Red Cross secretary, to enlist co-operation of the city and county schools in carrying out her plans, more than 400 school children being needed for the parade feature, "Living Crosses."

It is proposed to have one group of children, representing the county schools, form a "Living Red Cross" and another group from the city schools depict the American flag in the same manner. It will be necessary to use 144 for the cross and 200 for the flag, the children being attired in costume to work out the color scheme perfectly. Miss Doughty states that she is in communication with teachers and officials of the schools and expects to complete arrangements within a few days.

Committee Report
Reports of committees in charge of arrangements for the Memorial Day Services were given at a meeting held last night in the Community House, 8 High-st. Complete arrangements will be made at the final meeting of members of the committee Wednesday night, May 25, in the Veterans Room at the armory. Announcement of the complete program will be made early next week.

The parade will form on W. Center-st. and proceed adjoining W. Central Junior High School Building, and march at 1:30 o'clock to the Marion Cemetery where the exercises will be held, with General John B. McQuinn as the speaker of the day.

It is planned to mark all soldiers' graves with flags a couple of days before Memorial Day in order that all graves may be decorated with flowers. Any one knowing of the grave of a soldier of any war not listed is requested to communicate with L. A. Sloan, superintendent of the Marion Cemetery.

NEWSPAPER ORGAN PAYS
HONOR TO PROSPECT MAN

Achievements of Fred Keller
Dix as Publisher and Post
Recognized

Recognition of achievements in writing poetry as well as being a successful village newspaper publisher is contained in an article of prominence in the Publisher's Auxiliary, newspaper organ, in an issue of the current month concerning Fred Keller Dix, publisher of the Prospect Monitor and among the best known Marion County newspaper fraternity.

Briefly referring to Mr. Dix's early attempts in writing verse, the article describes his first "workshop," a granary on his father's farm. There, with his ambitious ambition as much as the meaning and purpose of his nightly toils, Mr. Dix created his first words. From this picturesque, if peculiar, surroundings, he sent forth a sample of his endeavor to the Human Life Magazine of Boston. It was accepted and printed in September of his Junior year in high school, the Publisher's Auxiliary states. "Fredder" in the "Bee" another poem by Dix appeared in the same magazine the following spring.

Started as "Devil"
Starting his first literary venture as "printer's devil" on the same paper that he now owns Fred Dix was demonstrated his relationship to the "devil" and poet of his employer. While employed still as the "devil" for at the Marion office, Dix wrote "The Country Newspaper" a poem that has brought him more recognition and fame than any other of his works. Dix in later years served on the Marion Star, The Marion Tribune, The Canton Repository, and the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Verse by Fred Keller Dix in book form made its first appearance in 1921 which brought favorable comment from newspapers and other critics throughout the country. Not satisfied with his natural ability as poet, the Marion publisher has studied under the technique of his work has been accomplished as well as the realistic and lovely settings where he finds his true art.

Marion, Crawford Counties Planning Improvement of Boundary Highway Stretch

Work on Three and Half Miles of Road Practically Certain as Result of Action Taken by Board at Joint Conference

Improvement of the county line road extending a distance of three and a half miles along the boundary between Marion and Crawford counties, is practically certain to take place this year as the result of action taken here yesterday.

A resolution authorizing the improvement, which has been advocated for several years, was adopted at a conference held by boards of commissioners of the two counties with all members present.

SEE
SYD. CHAPLIN
—IN—
"The Better Ole"

In accordance with provisions of the law governing road construction, in which more than one county is interested, the commissioners organized a joint county board by electing Mr. Huber of Crawford county, chairman and O. W. Kinnaman of Marion county, secretary.

To Share Cost

Each county will pay half of the cost of the improvement, which will be constructed under supervision of C. R. Leavens, Marion county surveyor. The resolution adopted yesterday authorized Leavens to proceed by drafting plans and furnishing an estimate of the cost. Although proceedings of considerable length are necessary before the contract can be awarded and the work started, it is thought that all of these preliminaries can be attended to so that the project can be finished this year.

The road will extend from the Buchanan east to a state road known as the Mud pit, a distance of three and a half miles. It follows the county line over the entire route. The roadway is to be 12 feet in width, of stone construction.

Under provisions of the resolution, all but $500 of Marion County's half of the cost will be paid by the county. The $500 is to be levied against Scott Township.

The Crawford county half will be distributed as follows: 15 per cent to be paid by the county, 30 per cent by Dallas Township and five per cent by property owners living within a half mile of the roadway. This five per cent will be assessed according to benefits.

Hearings To Be Held

Hearings, giving taxpayers an opportunity to state their views and objections, must be held before the project is consummated. A similar resolution was adopted by commissioners of the two counties a year ago but the work could not be done, due to Crawford county's inability to finance its share. The Crawford county commissioners announced yesterday that funds are now available and that they will be in position to handle the financing without difficulty. The conference was attended by Commissioners Barrett, Huber and Geiger of Crawford county and King, Kinnaman and Leavens of Marion county. Surveyor Leavens of Marion county was present as technical advisor.

ORVILLE GIBSON PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO CHARGE

One of Eight Men Held in Farm Thefts Appears Before Mayor

Orville Gibson, 26, one of the eight men arrested in connection with the recent round-up of alleged farm robbers, pleaded not guilty to the charge of grand larceny when arraigned in Marion Municipal Court, yesterday afternoon and his hearing was set for 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Gibson entered his plea before Mayor Earl M. Hazen, who is presiding in criminal cases coming up in municipal court while Judge Martin is absent because of the death of Mrs. Martin's mother.

Gibson was the last of the eight farm robbery suspects to be placed under arrest. The other seven were arraigned last week, five of them pleading not guilty and two guilty. The two who pleaded guilty waived preliminary examination. All seven were bound over to the grand jury and their cases will be taken up by the grand jury when they reconvene Wednesday.

Should Gibson be bound over in his hearing Wednesday morning it is likely that a report will be filed at once with the grand jury so that action can be taken in his case along with the other seven.

According to statements made by officials, Gibson confessed to participation in two of the farm robberies when questioned Saturday and it was expected that he would plead guilty when arraigned yesterday.

MARION COUNTY BOARD OF ELECTIONS OPENS

Mrs. Ralph White in Charge as Assistant Clerk; Arranging Records

The office of the Marion County Board of Elections was opened yesterday in preparation for the fall primary and election with Mrs. Ralph White in charge as assistant clerk. The office, located in rooms in the third floor above Nelson's jewelry store on E. Center st., will be open daily until after election day, next November.

Mrs. White, working under direction of A. W. Kette, clerk of the elections board, is now arranging records and files in preparation for the August primary, when nominations will be made for all city offices. Considerable extra work must be done as a result of the city having been divided into six wards to replace the old four-ward division.

Declarations of candidacy for the various city offices will also be filed at the office and it is expected that a large number will be received during the next few weeks, as the time for filing expires early in June.

Firestone Dealers!

Have Purchased 100% More GUM-DIPPED TIRES

(This Year Compared With Same Period Last Year)

THE demand from car owners for Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires has given Firestone Dealers a large increase in volume that enables them to sell these tires to you at the lowest prices in the history of the industry.

On the cars of motorists everywhere, in the every-day service of the largest truck and bus operators, these wonderful tires are delivering unheard-of long mileage together with greater safety and comfort.

The Firestone Balloon Tread, scientifically designed three years ago, and unchanged today, follows the contour of the tire carcass with no excess rubber at the edges to cause "shoulder breaks." Narrow rider strips permit the tread to yield to depressions and cling to the road, preventing skidding. This tough, pliable tread has the wear-resisting qualities that give thousands of extra miles.

The tread, however, is not the only important part of the balloon tire. This tread must be placed on a carcass that has the qualifications to withstand the terrific flexing that this design permits. The Firestone carcass is made of cords dipped in a rubber solution which not only saturates and insulates every fiber of every cord, but unifies sidewalls with carcass, eliminating any possibility of separation under the extreme flexing of low-pressure tires.

Many Firestone Dealers are prepared to take your old tires, offering you a liberal allowance on a new set of Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires to start the motoring season.

To meet a demand for a low price tire and tube, Firestone designed and manufactures Oldfield Tires and Tubes for Firestone Dealers only. They can furnish you with these tires at the low prices quoted, carrying the Standard Manufacturers' Guarantee.

SPORT SAUCE

BY

AFTER a three-day siege of football weather, thoughts of both young and old in Marion again turned to recreational ball today when the skies cleared and the sun again ventured forth.

The recreational season opened here last week but only two of the five leagues played, with the Association again being forced into the rain last night because of cold and rain.

Last year the same thing occurred, although the ball season did not get under way until May 17. The first scheduled series of each league was rained out last year and during the last week of the season games were completed in the twilight.

It was thought that by starting the season earlier this year, the daylight periods at the end of the schedule would be long enough to permit a full game to be played without handicap of darkness. For this reason, also, the contests in the Church League scheduled for last week will be played some time during the season and the regular series will be held as looked each week.

JIMMY MALONEY late yesterday was reported a 7 to 5 favorite, to defeat Jack Sharkey in their 15-round bout at Yankee Stadium, New York, Thursday night, for the championship of Boston and a crack at the heavy-weight title.

It is said that Sharkey suffered a slight injury while training a few days ago and a result will do no more boxing until the fight.

Maloney, who defeated Jack Dempsey, is down to 201 pounds, according to latest reports. Sharkey, the man who whipped Mike McTigue, weighs 193 pounds.

THE British ladies' open golf championship, which opened yesterday at Belfast, Ireland, over the Newcastle course, is attracting little attention. Last year it was one of the greatest events in English sports.

The absence of Miss Glenna Collett, American golf star, is believed responsible for the lack of color in the affair. Miss Collett did not compete this year and with her withdrawal, two other brilliant performers of golf, Miss Joyce Wethered and Miss Cecil Leitch, did not enter.

Only five entrants are entered from the United States.

FOLLOWING the precedent set by the Western Conference, representatives of 10 leading Eastern colleges have selected a football arbiter to choose the officials of all games between them next fall. The name of the new official has not yet been made known.

Ted Jones, head coach of Yale and known to every football fan in the country, sponsored the idea.

This method of appointing officials will free the latter from any feeling of obligation or responsibility to either contesting team and should aid in "putting things up" in athletic circles of the Eastern colleges.

It is said that Southern colleges will consider the same proposition and may join in the movement. Major John L. Griffith, the Big Ten commissioner of athletics, holds the honor of being the first man to hold a position which is becoming more and more popular.

Bob Meusel Steals Home as Yankees Trim Tigers; Cards Again Take Second

Lou Gehrig Hits Two Doubles and His Eighth Homer, Tying Babe Ruth in Circuit Clout; Reds and Indians Are Idle as Rain Stops Games

NEW YORK, May 17.—Ty Cobb hit a new rival in the art of base stealing today and the gent in question is none other than Bob Meusel the lanky and lanky outfielder of the New York Yankees. After stealing second in yesterday's game with Detroit, Meusel furnished a new wrinkle by stealing all the way home on one play.

With Meusel on second and Lazear on first, Catcher Shen trapped the runner between bases. When the Detroit players finished throwing the ball around Meusel was in and Lazear was safe at first and Manager Morarty of the Tigers was yelling for "headline powder."

Lou Gehrig hit two doubles and his eighth homer, tying Babe Ruth in home run honors. The Red Sox, who were in two games with the Yankees, registered their first double triumph, 4 to 2. Pitcher Walkup was sent in to pitch to Ruth and when the home runs spilled Walkup walked out. Ty Cobb hit his first home of the season and Simmons got two of them as the Athletics routed the Braves, 10 to 8, in a ding-dong battle. Ken Williams of the Browns collected four hits including a homer.

GROVER ALEXANDER

BY NORMAN I. BROWN
GROVER ALEXANDER might well lead off any directory of famous athletes.

He's in his seventeenth year in the big leagues.

He ended his sixteenth by pitching the Cardinals to victory in the regular season and world's series.

He led the National League in percentage of games won in 1913 and 1915.

He holds the record for leading his league in winning games with six years at the top.

He is one of three pitchers in history to win 20 or more games three consecutive years.

He holds the record for the most shutouts in a season with 16, hung up in 1916.

He had a life-time total up to this season of 32 victories and 124 defeats.

In other fields there are: Manuel Alonzo, Spanish tennis star of Davis Cup fame.

Harold Abrahams, British track star and winner of 100-meter dash in last Olympics.

ROWING MOST AMATEUR
Rowing is conceded to be the most truly amateur of all forms of athletics.

NEW ENGLAND TENNIS
The New England tennis championships have been held yearly at Hartford Conn. since early in the present century.

How to vary the monotony of doing the same things over and over every day is the insoluble problem.

EIGHT CONTESTS ARE SCHEDULED FOR TWO LOOPS

Regular Program Will Be Followed in Series of Games

WITH the sun shining at noon today and the mercury steadily rising, prospects for the opening of the Summer School recreational ball league tonight were more than favorable. All diamonds are reported in excellent condition and the first battles are expected to be waged at last, after many disappointments.

Here's the opening schedule!

League No. 1
Presbyterian No. 1 vs. Calvary No. 1 on Steam Shovel diamond No. 2
Forest Lawn vs. St. Mary's at 1st field.

League No. 2
Central Christian vs. Wesley M. E. at Lincoln Park.

Epworth No. 1 vs. Epworth Senior at Central diamond.

First Reformed vs. United Brethren on Steam Shovel diamond No. 3.

The regular schedule is being carried out in spite of the fact that the first series has been postponed. The postponed games will be played off sometime during the season.

Wednesday night will be a off night for recreational league teams, but a representative team of the Marion Steam Shovel will take on the Delaware city team at Central Junior High.

Thursday night, the Industrial League will play its first game and Friday will again see the Commercial league in action.

It was a better truck than he had ever seen, and it was a better driver than he had ever seen. The men were not working because of the rain, and they were all looking at the digger, and the Lost Bag of Tricks stood in the scoop the wagon dump, the gravel in to mix it, and the engineer touched something and lifted him about six feet in the air and made him set down sudden, and then the men touched something else and the scoop fell down on the ground so hard it knocked

But his hat got all more flies than our own going to feed this summer, and something has got to be done about it

OIL COMPANY SUIT AGAINST MOON IN COURT

Hearing of Complicated Proceeding Opens Before Common Pleas Judge Scofield

The suit of the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio against Edward S. Moon, et al., one of the most complicated proceedings of its kind on record here in recent years, came up for hearing this afternoon before Judge Scofield in the Court of Common Pleas.

The suit, starting with foreclosure actions against Moon, resulted in the appointment of a receiver for his affairs. He has 23 pieces of real estate, including both residence and business properties, with mortgages standing against practically all of them. The properties are estimated to be worth about $400,000. Charles E. Merkle, president of the Marion Savings Bank, is acting as receiver under appointment by the court.

Attorneys representing the various banks, loan companies and individuals holding claims against the properties attended today's hearing, when first steps were taken to marshal the liens and class them in their proper order, according to priority rights.

Merger Claim
 Numerous answers, cross petitions and other pleadings have been filed since the receivership proceedings started. The latest was filed yesterday by Hiterius Messenger, a former partner of Moon, in which he makes claim to ownership of a property listed in the court inventory as one of Moon's assets. Messenger says that the property, known as lot 7222 in John Herd's addition to the city of Marion, was deeded to him by Moon and that he has a clear title to it with the exception of a mortgage held by the Marion Savings Bank. There is now approximately $14,500 due on the mortgage, Messenger says. He asks that the inventory be corrected and his title to the property recognized. His attorney is L. L. Myers.

Of the 23 properties listed in Moon's name, 22 are in the city of Marion and one in Caledonia. Large interest accumulations are due on most of the mortgages.

Seeks Foreclosure
 J. W. Jacobs brought suit in the Court of Common Pleas today against Lyman D. Jones, Annette M. Jones, Lawrence T. Barrett, Donna M. Barrett and the Home Building, Savings & Loan Co., asking judgment for $24,331 with interest from May 12, 1932, on a mortgage standing against parts of lots 2586-2587 in the Ironton addition to the city of Marion. He asks foreclosure and sale of the property and that he be named as receiver of the property.

The mortgage note was signed by Lawrence T. and Donna M. Barrett, and the obligation was later assumed by Lyman D. and Annette M. Jones, the petition states.

Sale Confirmed
 Sale of property in the foreclosure suit of the Marion Savings Bank Co. against George E. Herd, et al., was confirmed yesterday by Judge Scofield and the proceeds were ordered distributed. The property, a farm in Richland township, was recently sold by the sheriff.

RAILS AND INDUSTRIALS REGAIN MOST OF LOSSES

Few Important Developments on Speculative Situation on Stock Exchange

MARKETS AT A GLANCE
 Railroad stocks, strong, industrial bonds, domestic bonds steady; foreign bonds, steady; call money 4 1/2 per cent; grain, fairly steady; copper, steady, oil, weak; cotton, fairly steady; rubber, steady; sugar, firm, pig iron, steady; foreign exchange, steady.

New York, May 17.—The fact that the railroad and industrial stocks closing losses, and that speculative borrowings were somewhat less on expectations, there were some important developments in the speculative situation today.

A decline in call money rates to 4 1/2 per cent reflected the easier tendency in the money markets for industrial stocks were handicapped somewhat by the spirit of indifference and hesitation that is shared by all observers outside of the professionals. The rails exhibited more buoyancy than the industrials, but wide price changes were rare.

Reports from the southern bond markets made it plain that a number of the large railroad concerns were suffering considerable damage to their property, as well as having their freight hauling business interrupted.

Prominent industrial companies like Westinghouse Electric Co., submitted favorable reports of operations and profits in the past year, while preliminary reports from the steel trade were satisfactory. The steel stocks and the copper attracted little outside buying, but prices remained steady, with the steel selling around 17 1/2, against yesterday's close at 16 1/2, and American Smelting about 150.

Retirement of Dry Leader Because of Health Seen

Rumor Has It Wayne B. Wheeler About To Pass Out of Picture

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, May 17.—No wonder prohibition's leadership in Washington has seemed erratic of late. No wonder recent dry policies at the capital have taken directions. It was hard to understand.

Wayne B. Wheeler is about to pass out of the picture, they say. He's a very sick man, according to his friends. Everything possible appears to have been done to minimize the seriousness of his illness, in the hope that he might mend, but at last it's admitted that he has been in failing health for months.

His retirement is beginning to be predicted now.

POLITICALLY speaking, Wayne B. Wheeler has been about the last word on the subject of national prohibition for around 10 years.

The dry, it's to be borne in mind, didn't come into power as a party but as a non-partisan force. They never have been the government, as the dominant party is. Instead, they've held officialdom what they wanted. To do this they needed a spokesman and that's what Wayne B. Wheeler's been—a great deal more.

Originally Wheeler was spokesman solely for the Anti-Saloon League, which is only one among a number of prohibition organizations, but most, if not all, of the others presently accepted him as theirs, too, simply because they recognized in him the ideal man for the job.

Wheeler's place, Wheeler was a perfect fit. It isn't quite exact to say he was a leader. He never was official head even of his own group, the Anti-Saloon League. Officially he was, and is, its general counsel.

More accurately, as to prohibition, he was an embodiment. When he expressed himself, as prohibition's spokesman, it was prohibition expressing itself.

Good team work on all the dry organizations' part was vital and Wheeler was the diplomat to insure it.

He had intelligence and determination and courage, a fair for publicity, endless patience, boundless industry and enthusiasm, and he never loses his head.

Wets don't like him but no wet who knows him ever denied he's a wonderful man.

As a dry politician it's safe to say Wheeler isn't an equal in the United States.

All the politics he knows, he knows from the dry standpoint, but from that angle he knows it in all its ramifications, unto the third and four generations, both ways.

It goes without saying that no cause can lose a general like this without suffering a certain amount of disorganization, and there are signs of it in the dry's ranks.

THE struggle over Roy A. Haynes, as a candidate for the permanent post as prohibition czar, is just one of them.

Indeed, rumor hath it that the Haynes row isn't so much over Haynes as it is a test of strength to determine who shall step into Wheeler's shoes.

It's no cinch that anybody can fill them.

Somebody can be chosen, of course, but can he hold the faithful together and lead 'em as warily as Wheeler has? Prominently mentioned possibilities are:

F. Scott McBride of the Anti-Saloon League, who has been acting as Wheeler's assistant in recent months; Dr. Clarence True Wilson of the Methodist Episcopal Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals; and Dr. E. W. Ingham of the National Temperance Bureau.

Woman Governor

Princess Beatrice, England's only woman governor is Princess Beatrice, widow of Prince Henry of Battenberg, youngest daughter of the late Queen Victoria, and mother of Queen Victoria of Spain. She rules over the Isle of Wight, a small island off the southern coast of England.

Prince Henry died 31 years ago, and it was after his death that Princess Beatrice went to live in Carisbrook Castle and became the "Lady of the Isle," as the women rulers of the island were picturesquely called.

Although her husband was a German prince and related to most of the reigning heads of Europe, Princess Beatrice saw her three sons go to battle in the World War under Kaiser's colors. GALION BOYS TO WORK ON CHAUTAUQUA CIRCUIT

Galion, May 17.—Two Galion high school boys, Julius Wiener and Robert Zinn, have received word of their appointment to positions as crew assistants with the Redpath Chautauqua. Their duties will begin June 2 and the territory covered will include Southern Ohio and surrounding states. Although such positions are much sought as summer work it is seldom that two applicants from one community are taken. Curtis Tricht of the Galion committee was largely instrumental in placing the Galion representatives.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

ATTACK ON MARINES IS NOT REGARDED SERIOUSLY

Does Not Indicate General Movement To Continue Guerrilla Warfare, Claim

Managua, May 17.—The attack on United States Marines at La Paz Centro, resulting in the death of Capt. Richard Buchanan and Private Martin Jackson and the wounding of two enlisted men, does not indicate any general movement on the part of the rebels to continue guerrilla warfare against the Americans, according to the best opinion here.

The major portion of the Liberals have already surrendered their arms to the American marines at Thipitapa.

Two million cartridges, 3,000 guns and 40 machine guns already have been surrendered.

Statements issued by Dr. Somoza, Liberal leader at Puerto Cabezas, declaring that his soldiers will fight until death and bitterly criticizing the Somoza peace plan, are regarded here as being statements issued largely for home consumption.

Dr. Somoza's followers in the field have surrendered generally.

LATIMER CONFIRMS DEATH REPORT

The dead are Capt. Richard Buchanan of Washington, and Private Martin A. Jackson, of Jacksonville, Fla.; the wounded, Private William F. Simon and Corp. A. J. Roush.
